

From: Michele Reagan, Secretary of State Communications@azsos.gov
Subject: Shop at the Capitol
Date: October 15, 2015

MR

No images? View this email in a browser | Unsubscribe

MICHELE
REAGAN
*Secretary of State
State of Arizona*

Come shopping!

Just one month ago, we announced the grand opening of www.azcapitolgifts.com, the online component of the Arizona Capitol Museum Store.

The Arizona Capitol Museum Store offers one-of-a-kind Arizona products with more selections on the way. It's perfect for gifts with that special Arizona feel. The store has something for everyone, children's t-shirts, specialty office accents, home decor and Arizona-inspired jewelry. Proceeds from the store benefit the programs and services of the Arizona Capitol Museum.

Our museum uses a balance of technology, hands-on activities, historical artifacts, and public programs to help visitors learn about and interact with the government of the 48th state. The next time you're in downtown Phoenix, stop by for a visit!

Michele

Secretary Reagan calls on dark money group to open books

Frustrated with a willful disregard of state campaign finance law and a court order, Secretary of State Michele Reagan has called on a dark money group funded by the Democratic Attorney Generals Association to comply with a court order to register as a political committee and file campaign finance reports back to 2010.

LEARN MORE

Secretary Reagan presents grant award at Lake Havasu City Library

Secretary Reagan presented Mohave County Library District officials a grant for $5,960 to be used to encourage early digital literacy.

LEARN MORE

Sent from the Office of the Secretary of State
1700 W. Washington St. FI 7
Phoenix AZ 85007
(602) 542-4285

This email was sent to you because you subscribed to receive updates from the Secretary of State. If you do not wish to receive these updates, kindly unsubscribe.

